

Know Your Rights

Embrace Equality and Expression

Articles 27 and 33 offer vital protections, ensuring equal treatment for all individuals and the freedom to express your thoughts. These rights empower you to engage actively and creatively in society.

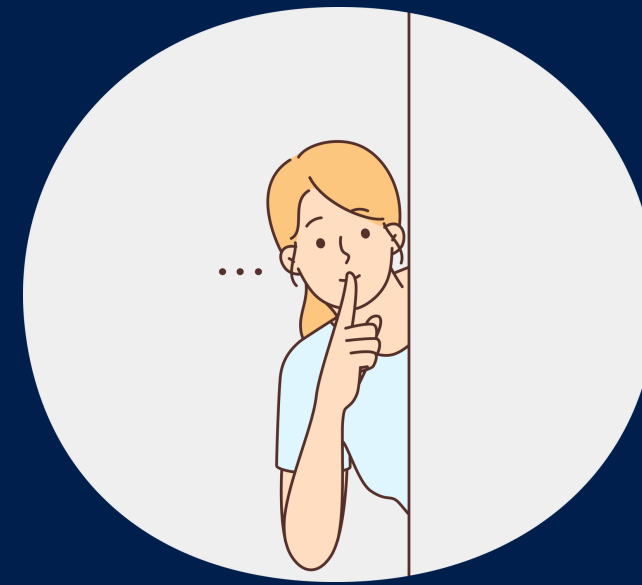

Your Right to Privacy

Article 31 safeguards your personal space, ensuring that your data, communications, and belongings remain private. This protection empowers you to maintain control over your own life in a digital era.

Fair Trial Rights Explained

Understanding your rights during an arrest is crucial. Articles 49 and 50 ensure you're informed, have the right to remain silent, and are presumed innocent until proven guilty in court.

Right to remain silent

Right to be informed

Right to be presumed innocent till guilty by a court of law

Empowerment

Together, we claim our rights!